

WALT: think about how rules influence the choices we make.

Task 1: Can you remember the story of Moses? Use the 'Cut and Stick Moses' document - cut out all of the pictures, and then stick them in the correct order. Once you are finished, read through the story to check that it makes sense!

Task 2: Look at the pictures below. Which one of the 10 Commandments is being broken in the picture?

The commandment being broken is...

The commandment being broken is...

Choose a picture and explain how the characters could make a better choice:

Task 3: Talk time! Think about some fairy tales you know. Do any of the characters break any rules? What did they do? How could they have made a better choice? Talk about these ideas with your adult at home. If you would like to, you can write your ideas down in your TEAMS RE notebook.

