

English

Launch Text: Into the Forest – Anthony Browne

Writing:

To know how to write an alternative version of a well known traditional story.

To know how and when to use noun phrases to explore settings and characters.

To know how to use past and present tense correctly.

Spelling

To know how to spell: words with 'el' saying /l/, 'al' and 'il' saying /l/, adding -ed and -er to words ending in 'e' and 'eer' saying /ear/, common exception words.

Reading:

Traditional and non traditional fairy tales

To know how to discuss and express views about a wide range of classic stories; to become increasingly familiar with and retelling fairy stories and traditional tales; to discuss and clarify the meanings of words; to discuss favourite words and phrases.

Buttercup Class – Spring Term 1

How are the countries of the UK different from each other?

Geography

To know, name and locate the four countries making up the British Isles, with their capital cities.

To know and name the surrounding seas of the United Kingdom.

To know the main features of each of the four countries that make up the United Kingdom.

To know, learn and use the four points of a compass to describe the location of features and routes on a map.

To know, name, locate and identify the characteristics of the four countries and capital cities of the United Kingdom and its surrounding seas.

Design and Technology

Making a fabric bunting

To know the different uses for fabric.

To know what bunting is and what it may be used for.

To know how bunting is constructed.

To know how to design, make and evaluate a piece of bunting.

Personal, Social and Health Education

Jigsaw piece – Dreams and Goals

To know how to choose a realistic goal and think about how to achieve it

To know that it is important to persevere

To know how to recognise what working together well looks like

To know what good group working looks like

To know how to share success with other people

Computing

Coding

To know how to use instructions to create algorithms to program a Beebot.

To know the difference in outcomes between different sequences

To know how to follow a sequence, give and receive instructions

To know how to test and debug parts of a programme

To know the vocabulary algorithm, decomposition and debugging.

Religious Education

Do religious symbols and artefacts mean the same to everyone?

To know about other religious symbols that are important to others.

To know how to show respect for different beliefs and opinions

Physical Education

Throwing and Catching

To know how to roll and stop a ball.

To know how to throw underarm.

To know how to throw overarm.

Gymnastics

To know how to plan and perform a sequence of movements.

To know how to improve a sequence and to take feedback to make changes.

To know how to travel over, under and across equipment.

To know how use different levels in a sequence.

Maths

Money

To know and recognise the place value of each digit, compare and order numbers from 0 to 100.

Multiplication and Division

To know and use multiplication and division facts for the 2, 5 and 10 multiplication tables, including recognising odd and even numbers.

To know that multiplication of two numbers can be done in any order (commutative) and division of one number by another cannot.

Music

Charanga – I wanna play in a band

To know how to enjoy moving to music by dancing, marching, being animals.

To know how to play an instrumental part of an overall song.

Science

Animals including humans

To know the importance for humans of exercise, eating the right amounts of different types of food, and hygiene.

Year 2 – Autumn 1 – Knowledge Organiser

Enquiry Question: How are the countries of the UK different from each other?

Subject Specific Vocabulary

capital city	The city of a country where the government sits.
cathedral	A cathedral is a larger Christian church that is the home church of a bishop.
city	A city is a large place that usually has a cathedral or university. A city is usually bigger than a town or village.
compass	A tool for finding direction.
cliff	A type of landform found around the coast. They are tall, steep rocks and have vertical faces.
country	An area of land that makes up part of the continent. We live in the country of England.
English Channel	The English Channel is a narrow stretch of water separating the south coast of England and the northern coast of France.
Irish Sea	A body of water that separates Ireland and Great Britain.
island	A piece of land that is completely surrounded by water.
landmark	Features of land or structures that are well known, for example, Buckingham Palace, White Horse Hill.
mountain	An area of land that is much higher than the land surrounding them.
North Sea	One of the most dangerous seas in the world. Separates the UK from countries including Belgium, Netherlands and Denmark.
population	The number of people living in a certain place or country.
port	A place where boats can come and go to load and unload their supplies.
river	A flowing stream of water that leads to the sea – the River Severn is the longest river in the UK.
town	A place with streets and buildings, where people live and work. It is usually larger than a village but smaller than a city.
UK	The United Kingdoms is a union of four countries joined together.
valley	A long ditch between hills or mountains. Most are formed by rivers.
village	A village has a group of houses with other buildings such as a church and a school. Stanford in the Vale is a village.

Key Knowledge

We live in the country of England, which is one of the four countries within the United Kingdom
 London, Oxford and Bristol are all cities.
 Swindon is a town.
 The capital cities of countries that make up the United Kingdoms are London (England); Belfast (Northern Ireland); Edinburgh (Scotland); Cardiff (Wales).
 An island is a piece of land with water all around it. They can be different shapes and sizes. Some islands are large like the United Kingdom whilst others are small like the Isle of Man.
 There are four seas around the United Kingdom of Great Britain They are the Irish Sea, the North Sea, the English Channel and the Atlantic Ocean.
 The United Kingdom is a union of four countries – a union means joined together.

Flags, patron saints, capital cities and national flowers

England		Scotland		Wales		Northern Ireland
	Saint George		Saint Andrew		Saint David		Saint Patrick
London		Edinburg		Cardiff		Belfast

Images and Diagrams

North
 South
 East
 West

